Attachment(s)

1) ☒ Notice of References Cited (PTO-892)
2) ☐ Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review (PTO-948)
3) ☐ Information Disclosure Statement(s) (PTO-1449 or PTO/SB/08) Paper No(s)/Mail Date _____.
4) ☐ Interview Summary (PTO-413) Paper No(s)/Mail Date. _____.
5) ☐ Notice of Informal Patent Application (PTO-152)
6) ☐ Other: _____.

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it does not provide a concise description of the technical disclosure which is new in the art. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Figures 12-14 are not listed and described in the Brief Description of the Drawings section.

Appropriate correction is required.

Priority

3. Applicant's reference to U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/874,869 is acknowledged. However, the above mentioned application is a continuation of two other applications which must be referenced in the specification. In addition, all statuses of each parent application is required to be updated (i.e., patent numbers).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Term "real-time software object" is indefinite.

Double Patenting

6. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,702,736. This is a double patenting rejection.

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,612,980, 6,241,657 and 5,776,050. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other. Instant claim 1 contains a feature wherein "at least one of said software objects corresponds to a graft which is to be deployed adjacent said physical structure". Since any software object can "correspond" to anything defined by a user (i.e., a graft), this feature lends nothing to further limiting or adding to the structure of the claimed combination. And since it is clear that the patented claims cover at least all elements of the instant claim 1 and more, the patented claims are in effect a "species" of the "generic" invention of the instant claim 1. It has been held that the generic invention is "anticipated" by the "species". See In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

10. Claim 1 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of copending Application No. 10/653,719. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant claim 1 contains a feature wherein "at least one of said software objects corresponds to a graft which is to be deployed adjacent said physical structure". Since any software object can "correspond" to anything defined by a user (i.e., a graft), this feature lends nothing to further limiting or adding to the structure of the claimed combination. And since it is clear that the patented claims cover at least all elements of the instant claim 1 and more, the patented claims are in effect a "species" of the "generic" invention of the instant claim 1. It has been held that the generic invention is "anticipated" by the "species". See In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
